"As I See It"

By LANGLOIS

OTHERS WHO HELPED

My attention was called to the fact that the names of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ray were omitted from those who worked on the 49er celebration, as also did Helen Martin, Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. Parfet. This was a slip-up somewhere along the line. Everybody in Lakeside knows the efforts put out by these people.

I have always been a character who loves good eats and in the quest of it, I think I've tasted about everything except fried rattlesnakes.

I am told by those who have tried this "delicacy" that it tastes like chicken. When I want something that tastes like chicken, I eat chicken.

That's neither here nor there. What I am getting at is, that a fellow likes a change of feed once in a while. What makes a city and gives it a cosmopolitan air, is its variety of cuisine.

San Diego County is now getting quite a number of good eating places that would be a credit anywhere — each a little different. Chinese dishes prepared by one who knows how, are now available in Lakeside.

Another new place we tried out the other evening is the Candlelight Dining Room on Highway 80. This restaurant is now owned and managed by Mr. and Mrs. Eichman, who, by the way, are people with a wide background in the art of good eating. Anyhow, we were over there and found their American type steaks good and thick and some one there knows his pastries. They cater to families and special parties.

I see where the girl friend is going to want to eat out, too, and I can't say I blame her, after looking a bunch of pots and pans in the face day in and day out. She probably needs a change, although I wouldn't say she was losing weight. Perhaps I'd better change the subject.

To reminesce a bit about eats, I remember the time, long, long ago, when my brother and I were tramping to a tie hacking job in what is now Glacier Park. The days were short then and it had been drizzling all day. We decided to stop at the cabin of one of our particular cronies—Gib deZee. Gib had a log cabin against a mountainside. We finally crawled up the path where old Gib welcomed us with open arms. He was hungry for the latest bunkhouse scandal.

We could smell some sort of a stew cooking in the fireplace embers. It smelled pretty good, compared to the usual cabin odor of sweaty Malones, unwashed German socks, plugcut, three hounds, homemade hooch and some slightly soiled soogans.

We threw off our turkeys, had one on the house, another one on us, then proceeded to swap a few yarns on the Paul Bunyan order; the traveling man and the chambermaid, the farmer and the city slicker, and so forth. We had a couple more on the house, then went outside to catch our breath and cool off.

Meanwhile, like all lumber jacks, our hunger was growing. The cabin was lighted by a smoking kerosene lamp with a chimney that had never been cleaned. Hence the light was dim, so Mike, my brother, went over to investigate the stew first hand. I followed. The stew pot hung on a crane in front of the fireplace. A tin lid was kept from covering the pot tightly by something sticking out. Closer investigation proved these objects to be the forepaws of a lynx that Gib had neglected to skin. The hide was still on. The rest of the carcass was about done.

Something or other, I guess it was too many on the house, took our appetites away.

Gib at that time was busy with some yarn about the blue ox, so we did not mention stew. A couple more from our jug and Gib was asleep. We threw the stew out, booted the hounds through the door, and cut a few steaks from a quarter of elk hanging in the leanto; had our feed and fell asleep. I have often wondered how that lynx would have tasted.

Another time in a hobo jungle, on the banks of the Feather River we decided to have a mulligan. A couple of the bums were delegated to go out and get a couple of chickens; others were to get some onions and spuds, and so on. One old boomer, myself and another gaycat stayed back to get the water hot in the kettle, which meant rustling wood. When the two boomers got back with the chcken, we were set to pluck 'em.

Being ranch-raised boys, we knew our chickens, and when we got hold of the two these bums brought in, we knew that something was sour, so we asked where these birds were roosting when they got 'em.

The answer was, they were easy to get because they were in a box with a bunch of eggs under them. In short, they had picked a couple of fevered setting hens for a mulligan.

When our plucking job was over, the boomer, myself and the gaycat took off for a free lunch place. We all had a dime.

In those days, a nickel bought a schooner, big as a gold fish bowl of good draft, plus a big free lunch. Two schooners made the bartender smile, and you could eat your fill.

Lucky for us we left when we did. Half an hour after we left, the town clown raided the jungle and the feather evidence was enough to put all the jungle inmates in storage for 30 days.

We'll talk about eats some other time.

Optimists Cook Picnic Dinner for Wives

The Lakeside Optimist Club honored the Opti-Mrs. Club at a picnic Thursday evening, July 28, at El Monte Park. A picnic supper was enjoyed by all, with the men doing the cooking.

Dancing was enjoyed afterwards until 11 o'clock.

CHIEF PROBATION OFFICER TO SPEAK IN LAKESIDE

Charles T. G. Rogers, Chief Probation Officer of San Diego County, will speak at the Optimist meeting on Thursday night at the Scout Hut.

All friends of Optimist and those interested in juvenile delinquency, are invited to hear him. He will begin his talk at 8 p.m.

Another Enjoyable Dance for Teen-agers

Approximately forty teen-agers danced at the Opti-Mrs.-sponsored party last Friday evening. The Recreation Hall was decorated with eucalyptus branches, bales of hay and other western objects. The teen-agers danced in jeans and calico.

Several of the young people turned out on Friday to help with the decorating. The Opti-Mrs. also wish to thank the teen-agers who helped decorate their float for the 49er parade and thereby helped to win first prize.

About fifteen couples, mostly Optimists and their wives, took advantage of the decorated hall to dance on Saturday evening. A small admission was charged, and the profit made (about $3) has been spent to buy records for the teenage dance.

Records have also been donated by Bob Philbrook, Wilson White and Trigg Stewart. Other donations of records suitable for dancing will be very much appreciated, and anyone who is able to do so may contact Mrs. Trigg Stewart, H. 4-3507, who will be glad to collect them.

Eucalyptus Hills Meeting August 5

A meeting of the Eucalyptus Hills Civic Ass'n has been called for Friday evening, August 5, by Harvey S. Bain, president.

The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock at the old Recreation Building in Lakeside.

Recommend Site for Proposed Hospital

A site on Chase ave. at Pine dr. in the Grossmont foothills has been recommended for a site of a suburban hospital by a representative group of El Cajon Valley citizens.

The citizens met July 29 at the Tuttle Bros. Hardware Store in El Cajon and forwarded their recommendation to the Board of Directors of the La Mesa Community Hospital and following its receipt the latter board moved to acquire the Chase ave. site if possible.

It was suggested the new hospital be named "Heartland Memorial Hospital."

The proposed site comprises about five acres at the junction of Pine dr. The existing La Mesa Community Hospital, a non-profit corporation, would erect the new hospital.

The citizens meeting was called to order by Raymond Tuttle, chairman of the Suburban Hospital Association Executive Committee, of which Robert D. Cloyes, M.D., is president. W. T. Soldman Jr., M.D., is chairman of the Site Selection Committee.

Other citizens attending the July 29 meeting were Mrs. Nan Couts, John Gorby, Walter Gorby, Ben Polak, Mrs. Virginia Mitchell, all of La Mesa; Harry E. Freyberg of San Diego; William Bain of Alpine, Miss Alice Gilliland and Mrs. Mildred Gilliland of El Cajon, and C. Rupert Linley of Lakeside. The latter, was appointed with Harry E. Freyberg as a legal committee to draw up a new set of by-laws.

The members of the Suburban Hospital Association will be asked by mail to express their opinions on the above recommendations.

Speaker Warns of Communism Danger

The threat of communism to our free institutions is a potent one, and the danger should be recognized by all Americans, in the opinion of Father Francis Kaveney of San Diego.

He was guest speaker at Wednesday's luncheon of the Lakeside Kiwanis club and was introduced by Father Louis Del Vecchio, chairman of the day.

There are more communists, as such, in this country than there are actual members of the party in Russia, Father Kaveney stated. He said the majority of Russians vote the communist ticket through fear of reprisals to them or members of their families.

"It is the duty of every American, who likes his country, his freedom and his religion, to report to the FBI any knowledge he may have of subversive activity," the speaker said, adding, "If we sleep, they will take over."

FRED KRAFT TO SPEAK

Assemblyman Fred Kraft will be guest speaker at next Wednesday's luncheon. Willie Ames is chairman of the day.

President Elmer Walker introduced the Chairman with a tnumbnail biography:

Father Louis Del Vecchio attended grammar school in New York City and high school in New Jersey. He studied theology two years in Rome and later at St. Mary's in Baltimore, being ordained a priest in 1945. He came to Lakeside in 1947.

Two guests were introduced: M. S. Brooks, Oregon drug store owner, and Ben Cerveny, president of the El Cajon Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Home Sites Purchased Through Boyd Realty

The office of Boyd Realty reports the following sales:

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taylor of San Diego purchased a homesite in the McClain subdivision on Los Coches rd.

Mr. and Mr. Ralph N. Ellis, also of San Diego, purchased a homesite in the above location.

Both purchasers expect to start contruction of new home in the immediate future.

Mr. and Mr. Maurice G. Smith bought 3¾ acres from King Milligan on Julian ave. Mr. Smith, a former Lieut-Comdr. in the Navy, is to begin immediate construction of a 3-bedroom home.

RITES FOR JOHN A. JOHNSON

Final services for John A. Johnson, 78, a retired Lakeside rancher, who died Saturday in a San Diego hospital, were conducted Wednesday in the Paris Mortuary in El Cajon. Burial was in Glen Abbey Memorial Park in Chula Vista.

Mr. Johnson had lived in this area for 32 years. His home was on the El Monte Park rd. and attracted considerable attention because of the unusual way the rows of hedges were trimmed in the shape of animals.

Mr. Johnson, a native of Sweden, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Justine Johnson of Lakeside.

Men Worth Knowing

While we enjoy the peace and security our Nation affords, we take pleasure in presenting one of the boys who went out to do battle for our continued existence, and who was fortunate enough to return alive after a couple of years in the mud and filth of Guadalcanal. We present this week an American Veteran—a man worth knowing—

LESLIE KEPHART
Now Battles on Civic Front

Born in North Dakota in 1910, Leslie Kephart came to Lakeside in 1924. He soon became well known, through his dealings with the public, first as an employee of the Lakeside Supply under Bob Swearengin, then again with the Lakeside Supply after his discharge from the Navy. Les is now an associate of the Howell Lumber Yard.

He attended the old Lakeside Grammar School, where he received and gave the average number of black eyes of an American school boy. He proceded to Grossmont High School, where he was graduated.

In 1936 Adrienne Emerick decided the best way to get rid of him was to marry him.

They have five children: Charles, Jerry, Walter, Leslie Anne and Dorna Fay, who, without doubt, will grow up into the same caliber of American their parents are— the type that keeps America great.

Since his return to civilian life, Les has been active in civic affairs, his principal interest being the completion of the Lakeside War Memorial Building. He has been one of the hardest workers on this civic project, beginning with the first of the annual Days of 49 celebrations.

Les has other interests also—the VFW, Farm Bureau and Chamber of Commerce.

We take our hats off this week to an American Veteran who stepped forward when his country needed him, and is still in the front ranks fighting for civic progress.

Rowe Miller buys Into Hamlet's Market

Rowe Miller, former operator of the Riverview Market, has purchased an interest in Hamlet's Market, and effective Monday, will take over active management of the market. He will be assisted by Mrs. Miller.

The market will be known as the M & H Market.

Ask Voters' Approval For New High School

The Board of Trustees of the Grossmont High School have approved a bond election November 8 to provide funds for building the West La Mesa High School, it was revealed this week.

The amount of the issue will depend upon the assessed valuation which is not yet known, according to Lewis F. Smith, District Superintendent and Principal of Grossmont, but it is estimated that it will be in the region of $1,200,000 or $1,300,000.

If the State Bond Issue for school buildings is approved by the voters on November 8, a State loan will be available if local voters approve participation.

It was made clear by the Board of Trustees that local resources can provide only 55% of the amount needed for building the West La Mesa High School.

Construction of this school would make possible the reduction of the enrollment at Grossmont to its 1800 rated capacity. Already badly overcrowded with 2650 students enrolled for this September, students will number close to 3,000 in 1951 and 5,000 in 1956. By 1956 the El Cajon high school must be built, Mr. Smith states, with a substantial portion of the cost being financed from the State Loan Fund, provided the State fund is approved and that the local electorate approves the local bond issue.

It is necessary that a district be bonded to 95% of its capacity in order to participate in the State Loan Fund.

Many New Features At Remodeled Market

With alterations well under way, shoppers can now get a good idea of what the future Barker and Prindle Market will look like when remodeling is completed.

The shopping area has the appearance of being nearly twice its former size. A row of new meat cases in Prindle's department give a stream-lined appearance.

Three rows of new-type tubular lighting at the ceiling level, are being installed.

Along one side and the rear of the food market, are rows of refrigeration compartments for frozen foods, fruits, vegetables and milk products.

Wide aisles make easy shopping, with all displays at the eye level.

A new type of shopping carriages, easy to roll, have also been purchased.

The market is open to shoppers, as usual, most of the remodeling work being done during hours after closing.

Register Now To Vote!

All those who did not register for the last regular election or who have changed residence since that time must reregister in order to be eligible to vote in the Fall election.

Lakeside voters may register at the office of George H. Langworthy in the office at the rear of Cecil's Drive-In.

Planning Now for Next Year's '49er

At a meeting Monday night results of this year's celebration were summarized and plans discussed for another 49er next year.

Wilson White, spokesman for this year's 49er committee, presided as chairman.

Among suggestions made were:

Building booths of a permanent nature, with western facades, that can be easily taken down and put up each year.

Buying two lots adjacent to the Memorial Building for 49er celebration use.

Surfacing lots to keep down dust.

A get-together dinner for all who had a part in Lakeside's 49er celebration will be held Friday, Aug. 5, at 7 o'clock at the Memorial Building.

It will be a potluck dinner. Bring a dish and your own table service.

Dancing will follow.

Huge barbecues each day of the celebration.

More entertainment to draw visitors.

That tables and benches be installed and shade provided for picnics.

An adequate public address system be installed.

An advance program be publisned and adhered to.

That a new committee be elected this month to plan events for next year.

That an event be held each month for the benefit of the Memorial Building Fund, such as a dance, barbecue, minstrel shows, etc., and that each community organization be asked to sponsor an event.

That the Queen contest be run as it was in 1948, without organizations sponsoring individual candidates.

Each organization be asked to handle two or three booths during the celebration.

More and better road directional signs pointing toward site.

More and better publicity.

More trophies and ribbons for parade entries.

That a paid manager be hired to supervise the celebration for two or three months preceding the opening date.

That chairmen of various departments be selected from persons familiar with the subject of their project.

ANOTHER MEETING MONDAY

A second meeting of the committee will be held at the Scout Hut Monday at 7:30 to continue the discussion and gathering of suggestions. Every person in Lakeside is invited to attend this meeting and add his or her opinion to those already expressed.

A net profit of between $5,000 and $6,000 will be realized from this year's Days of 49 celebration, it was estimated this week. This sum will compare favorably with that of previous years.

The gross intake was in the neighborhood of $7,500. A complete financial accounting is being prepared by George Nelson, 49er treasurer.

New Service Station For Winter Gardens

Barney Barkus and Ted Sherman, Winter Gardens residents for several years, are opening a new service station Saturday on Cajon road in Winter Gardens near Thiesen's market.

The new station, called the "Winter Gardens Emporium," will handle Union Oil Company products; also the Gravely 5-h.p. tractor. Car maintenance will also be part of the new firm's service.

CLOSING DAY CHANGED

The management of the Candlelight Dining Room announces that their restaurant will be closed Wednesdays of each week, instead of Mondays as formerly.

Visitors to Hollywood

Jean Haines and Dorothy Wolin spent a week in Hollywood recently. While there they were guests at the radio shows "Meet the Mrs.", "Surprise Package" and "Name the Movie." They also visited Earl Carrolls Theater Restaurant, Ken Murrays Blackouts, Knott's Berry Farm and Mike Lyman's famous grill.

Miss Haines has also had three weeks' vacation visiting relatives and friends in Oregon.

Upon her return to Lakeside, she called at the Star office and asked that mention be made of her appreciation to the Farm Bureau and others who contributed toward her candidacy for Queen of the 49ers.

COMING EVENTS

August 9— S. D. Symphony, Balboa Park Bowl, 8:15

August 10—7:45, Opti-Mrs. closed meeting at the Scout Hut.

FIRST TRAIN INTO LAKESIDE PLANNED TO LINK WITH EAST

By FLORENCE BEADLE

Lakeside was at one time the terminus of the San Diego, Cuyamaca & Eastern Railway. Governor Waterman built the railroad with his own private funds, and had intended to extend it to his Stonewall gold mine in the Cuyamacas. The projected route was through Warner's Pass into the Imperial Valley and thence on to Yuma.

Before construction had gone far, however, the gold mine ceased to produce; and the railroad ended at Lakeside. When John D. Spreckels built his railroad through the Imperial Valley to Yuma, he selected an entirely different route.

When the first trains came into Lakeside in 1889, the town was only three years old. There was the famous Lakeside Inn, two boarding houses, two general stores, a post office, blacksmith shop, lumber yard, livery stable, the "Castle House" and a few scattered homes.

At the height of the boom days there were eight passenger trains and four freight trains into Lakeside every day, and special picnic excursion trains Saturdays and Sundays.

At Lakeside, freight was loaded onto wagons drawn by eight horses. The passengers took the four-horse stagecoach for the long trip into the mountains.

Some time later a spur track was laid to Foster, three miles north of Lakeside. near the present site of San Vicente Dam. These tracks were washed out in the 1916 flood and were never replaced. Lakeside again became the end of the line.

A portion of the track near Riverview was also washed away, but was replaced in 1917 and this was the occasion of a gala celebration in Lakeside. This same portion of track was again washed out in the 1927 floor and was once more replaced.

The railroad company built and maintained picnic grounds and dance pavilions near the Lakeside bridge and at Riverview station. These were the scenes of hundreds of school and Sunday school and lodge organization picnics.

Both of these picnic grounds were washed away in the 1916 flood and were never rebuilt. Also washed away were all the beautiful big oak trees. This flood also took out the Lakeside bridge and 23 homes in the river bottom. There was no loss of life, however.

The coming of the autos and the large freight trucks made further operation of the railroad unprofitable. The tracks between Santee and Lakeside were taken out in 1938. When the government built Gillespie Field, in 1942 the tracks were removed between El Cajon and Santee. The rails only go as far as the El Cajon packing houses and are part of the San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway. They operate it only as a freight feeder line.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Vice of La Mesa and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Land of Ocean Beach, and Miss Sandra Lund of Imperial Beach, also Mrs. Doris Bowden of San Diego were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bessie Mallory.

Larry Wilcox, formerly of Lakeside, has returned to his old position at Solar Aircraft.

Bill and Betty Root of the Lakeside Inn are on vacation this week at Big Bear Lake in the San Bernardino mountains.

Visiting Here en Route To Grand Canyon

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Brooks and daughter Betty Jo and son David, of Oregon City, are visiting this week in Lakeside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker. They will leave Sunday to continue their vacation trip to the Grand Canyon and up through the Rockies. Mrs. Baker will accompany them as far as Boulder, Colo. Mr. Brooks is a pharmacist and has an interest in several drug stores in Portland and vicinity.

Maggie Writes of Steaks and Pies and...

Dear Elinor:

One of the prettiest babes in town is the new Miss Vogan on Los Coches rd. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vogan. Arrived on July 10, via Mercy Hospital. She has five brothers.

You are the kind of girl who will stop to have your passport stamped before you pass through the Pearly Gates, so I wasn't surprised that you ask WHAT is so wonderful about the Lakeside people. You know darned well I can't describe goodness any more than you can describe the flavor of a broiled steak. But Lakeside is full of good people—people who do things, expecting no reward and wanting no publicity.

Of course, there are some who are in better circumstances than others, and we have a "Squatters' Flat" that we wish we didn't have. But you could say that our upper crust and our lower crust are held together (not separated) by a good, wholesome, spicy, middle. It's good pie. Cut yourself a slice and make yourself at home.

It would have been fun to go to Utah with Max and Helena Jenkins. Utah has a flavor all its own, from its red-clay colored canyons in the south to beautiful Salt Lake City, where the spirit of the pioneers is ever present. Not that Max and Helena asked us to go along, since the car was already bulging with Virginia, Phillip and Clark and baggage for a two weeks' trip. They'll have a good time.

There's a man in Lakeside who paints pictures you would like — desert and mountain scenes that look like home country. One or two of them hang in the library all the time. The artist's name is Waldemar Brunke and if he was a relative of mine, or even an in-law, I'd be mighty proud of his talent.

You missed a good show by not being here for the Barbershoppers Varieties. The men really went to town. We got an extra laugh when Dick Hoffman had trouble strumming his guitar because his "curves" got in the way. We had another good laugh during the gymnastic act when Earl Barker's little blond two-year-old dumpling piped out, "Don't fall daddy!"

The stars must not be just right for the Foster girls lately, or something, because there have been two minor accidents in two different families. Helen, daughter of Clara and L. G., was in the right place at the wrong time, having a pitchfork accidentally jabbed into her upper arm. Scars, but fortunately, no serious damage. Then Judy, daughter of Bessie and Art, made a dash down their hill, soap-box derby fashion, and came out second best after colliding with a barbed wire fence. Scars, but again, fortunately, no serious damage—to Judy. The mother, however, has not yet fully recovered.

We've heard of people who sprinkle sugar on watermelon before they eat it. The name of their place, according to the gatepost sign, is "Shady Shadows."

All this talk about steak and pie and watermelon is making me hungry. I'm going to lunch!

So long.

MAGGIE.

Opti-Mrs Club Enjoys Interesting Programs

The Lakeside Opti-Mrs. Club has set a high standard of programs, with Mrs. Paul deNure, program chairman.

Mrs. deNure scheduled a series of four speakers from the San Diego County Probation Department. Eddie Wiegle, Chief Asst. Probation Officer; Miss Helen Frazeur, psychologist; Charles T. G. Rogers, Chief Probation Officer, and Mrs. Bernice Miller, Supervisor of Girls' Division, not only gave the Opti-Mrs. much information concerning the function of the county probation department, but also gave them ideas to work out in their girls' work program.

At their last meeting the Opti-Mrs. were fortunate in being able to hear Miss Wanda Howard play five selections on the viola. Miss Howard has done an excellent job in the Lakeside Elementary School with the orchestra and women's chorus. She was accompanied by Miss Nancy Storm, who will also give a program of piano selections at the August 24 Opti-Mrs. meeting at the home of Mrs. George Baird.

Both Miss Howard and Miss Storm received their master's degrees in music at the University of Washington and both are playing this summer with the San Diego Symphony Under the Stars, beginning in August.

Valley Toastmistresses

Mrs. Kenneth Freeman, president, presided at the monthly business meeting of the El Cajon Valley Toastmistress Club on July 27 at Ernie's Rancho.

Mrs. Wesley Vickers gave a creditable performance as topicmistress. She called upon Mrs. Howard Sanders and Mrs. J. E. Hall to give their views on "Tennicide," an increasing menace to safety on our highways.

Mrs. Larry Boeing and Mrs. Hale Whitaker discussed gangsterism in California, with both speakers agreeing that the Los Angeles area is becoming a "Little Chicago" in this respect.

Mrs. Darwin Bennett and Mrs. A. Robert Hunter spoke on the recent news item, "A Doctor Removes His Own Appendix."

The following chairmen named their committees for the ensuing six months: Program, Mmes. Hall, Tracy and Bennett. Publicity; Mmes. Sanders, Hunter and W. E. Ragan. Community service and education: Mmes. Hunter, Vickers and Sanders.

A note of gaiety was injected into the meeting when Mrs. Whitaker, charter-president, was presented a birthday cake on a revolving musical box, and a card signed by all members present.

FOR POISON IVY

Poison ivy will no doubt cause the usual amount of unhappiness this summer to picknickers and hikers.

But not if the advice of Farmers Bulletin No. 1166 of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is followed.

Bathe the affected areas with hot water — as hot as the skin can stand. Many who have tried it have had complete relief from itching immediately after the hot water bath. Repeat as often as necessary to secure relief.

Several Seek 80th Assemblyman Post

Edwin M. Campbell

Mrs. Dorothy Odin has been appointed chairman in charge of the circulation of petitions favoring Edwin M. Campbell, to replace Howard Cramer.

An interesting development of the coming election, according to Mrs. Odin, is that in order to qualify each candidate must secure at least 3,600 signatures or 5% of the votes cast in the last election. Mrs. Odin urges the voters to investigate prospective candidates as soon as possible in order to be prepared to sign or reject the petitions as they are offered.

Signatures must be of registered voters, any party, and sign only one petition.

Labor for the circulation of these petitions will be voluntary and Mrs. Odin will appreciate any and all help. She can be reached by phone H. 4-7525, or at her home in Winter Gardens.

Ralph R. Cloyed

Ralph R. Cloyed, well-known retired dairyman of Chula Vista today announced to a representative of the Lakeside Star that he was a candidate for the vacancy in the 80th Assembly District.

Mr. Cloyed stated that he was seeking the support of all voters of the district in the belief that his first-hand knowledge of the problems of the agriculturist, water and soil conservation, together with the State highway program in San Diego County, best qualifies him for the work ahead if elected November 8th.

Mr. Cloyed is well acquainted in Lakeside and throughout the county. He is the vice-president of the Chula Vista Chamber of Commerce, member of the San Diego Highway Association, Chula Vista City Planning Commission, and a past Commander of the American Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyed live at 154 Madrona Street, Chula Vista, and are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Donald Peck of Chula Vista, and Mrs. P. T. Meacham of Bakersfield.

Ed J. Neron

Ed J. Neron of the Mt. Helix area, this week also announced his candidacy for the vacated post of Howard Cramer.

Mr. Neron served in two World Wars in the United States Navy as an enlisted man and commissioned officer.

In a statement released this week, Mr. Neron said "I feel that I am qualified to render my District a specific service at this time because of my service in Sacramento as Deputy Director of Public Works under Governors Merriam and Olson and later having served as Deputy Director of Veterans and Military Affairs under the governorship of Earl Warren.

"I am now a lemon and avocado grower living in the Mt. Helix area. I have been a resident of San Diego for the last 25 years."

Among other things Mr. Neron pledged to "fight for" are adequate development of water resources; proper agricultural advisory service to our cattle men and adequate maintenance of county roads "with the help of State gasoline tax rather than spending the money for the development of national highways which take trade away from our district rather than to increase it."

"He suggested postponing the wedding." — St. Louis woman, explaining why she fired a shot near fiance's head.

"All Western Days" To Benefit Youth Projects

Ten per cent of the net proceeds of St. Mary's "All Western Days," to be held this year September 16, 17 and 18 at Gillespie Field, will be turned over to the City of El Cajon to be used for a youth project of a permanent nature.

This decision was made by the advisory board at a recent meeting held in the parish hall, because of the all-out spirit of cooperative civic leaders of El Cajon.

The fund is to be administered by the city council, and the following organizations have been requested to assign a representative to work with the City Council as an advisory committee: Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions, Optimists, Toastmasters, Veterans' Civic Memorial Ass'n, PTA and the city schools.

California Leads

The average gross income to California turkey growers in 1948 was $9.60 per head. Asst. Farm Advisor Robert H. Adolph, U. of C. AES, says this is a record high. Producers of hatching eggs also had a profitable season. They received an estimated average of 33.8 cents per egg compared to 23.6c in 1947.

Adolph says there has been a strong demand for hatching eggs and poults so far this year. Present indications are that the 1949 turkey crop will be even larger than that of 1948.

The Golden State Is the Place to Live!

A trip up Highway 99 to the Pacific Northwest is a good one for every Californian to make every few summers. He gains a better appreciation of his own state for several reasons, namely:

The summer weather here is more dependable.

Our highways are much better and pulling ahead every year.

Recreation is as good or better than in the Northwest.

Shasta Lake above Shasta Dam is potentially the greatest recreation area in the West. Its hundred miles or more of shoreline is in a scenic setting. The summer weather is ideal for outdoor activities of all kinds. Already a good-sized tourist town has sprung up at Project City.

Main improvements now under way on 99 through California are realignment north of Yreka, a new section of highway near Fresno and realignment of portions of the highway over the mountains north of Los Angeles.

Random Notes: Via Grants Pass is much the quickest way north. Alternate route through Klamath Falls is slower because much of the highway out of Eugene is in poor condition and under construction . . . Oregon is prosperous, with its forest products industries going strong and good crops being harvested . . . Little evidence remains of the destructive Columbia River flood last year. The debris at Vanport has nearly all been cleared away and the site has reverted to meadows along the river's edge. Flood water filled the housing project to a depth of 12 feet. Reason for low loss of life (14) was because most people were away when the dike burst on a Sunday afternoon. . . The great Kaiser shipyards on the Columbia at Vancouver are deserted and most of the temporary housing for its workers has been torn down. . . Highlight of a visit in Portland is a visit to the Meier & Frank Department Store, probably the best in the West.

Teen-agers Should "Show It With Deeds"

Scant appreciation for the admirable work being done with and for Lakeside teen-agers has recently been shown by a few Lakeside youths.

One or two are said to have wrecked the juke box in the Scout Hut, put there by the Lakeside Optimist Club—"Friend of the Boy."

The Optimists will remain friend of the boy in spite of this bit of sabotage of their plans to make life more interesting for teen-age youths.

They know most teen-agers will have no part in such bad manners on the part of one or two.

One way the teen-agers can show their gratitude for the Optimist Club of Lakeside is to help keep the gymnasium in tidy condition and take better care of the equipment. Eddie Marquis isn't complaining, but he could use more cooperation from the boys using the gym.

Eph Putnam Opines:

It's a pretty good sign that the honeymoon is over when the bride starts complaining about the noise her man makes when he cooks his breakfast.

A Morning Prayer

The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us perform them with laughter and kind faces. Let cheerfulness abound with industry. Give us courage to go blithely on our business all this day, bring us to our resting beds weary and content and undishonored, and grant us in the end the gift of sleep.

Life is not a spectac'e or a feast; it is a predicament.

Trip lightly over trouble,
Trip lightly over wrong,
We only make it double
By dwelling on it long.

Last Week at the '49er Ball

I saw her in the mazy dance,
A beauty young and bright,
And by her smile, her step, her glance,
I knew her heart was light.

Full many a queenly form was there,
And many a happy face,
But none I thought was half so fair
Or owned so sweet a grace.

And while to music's merry clash
They mixed and moved along,
I saw her bright eye frequent flash
For one amidst the throng.

She watched him gliding to and fro
Through all that smiling band,
And oh, what joy she seemed to know
Whene'er he took her hand!
On went the dance; once more it brought
That loved one circling near;
He stood beside her, and I thought

He whispered in her ear.
But ah! what dreadful words were they
That caused her sudden start
That seemed to take her breath away
And wound her to the heart?
With gathering tears her eyes grew dim
And down her head she bowed,
And leaning faint and weak on him

She moved from out the crowd.
He sat beside her, white with woe,
I heard him pray and plead,
And ask in accent soft and low
Forgiveness for the deed.

He did not pray and plea in vain,
For soon her grief was o'er,
But though I saw her smile again,
That night she danced no more.

What words were they that marred her bliss
And bade such grief be born?
Well, none at all; the fact was this —
He trod upon her corn.

Vol. I August 4, 1949 No. 7

At the Directors' meetng at Bing's Monday night a long-range or five year plan for boys' work was discussed at great length. No final decisions or conclusions yet but lots of thought is being given to this very important part of our overall effort.

Mac Macgillivray has accepted the somewhat thankless job of secretary. This change will greatly relieve the burden on Fred whose treasurer job is enough for one man.

Bob Philbrook has accepted the responsibilty of taking some boys and cleaning up the grounds around the Scout hut.

Our now famous pig will be sold as Old Man Glazier (the Indian in the '49er parade.) predicted long ago in the Mountain Messenger. The proceeds go into the Boy's Work Fund.

And hold your hats, boys, for here is the works. Starting as of now, anyone not calling in to Fred or Bob Watkins that they will not attend the dinner part of the regular meeting will be billed for the full price of $1.25! ! Even if we had a pig we still wouldn't want to feed it on the kind of cuisine we have been getting from our Opti-Mrs. An attendance register will be placed near the door of the Scout Hut on meeting nights. Everyone should register. This will comprise a record of attendance and of payment for dinner or special assessments. This looks like a much needed help to the boys who have the job of keeping books and sending out bills.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
SUNDAY TEXT 'LOVE'

Christian Science Subject 'Spirit'

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from the Psalms, and reads, "O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. . . . Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?"

Luke's Gospel records that as Jesus "went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, . . . there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. And Jesus . . . spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Jesus demonstrated the inability of corporeality, as well as the infinite ability of Spirit, thus helping erring human sense to flee from its own convictions and seek safety in divine Science." "Correct material belief by spiritual understanding, and Spirit will form you anew."

FRIENDLY CALLS IN LAKESIDE

CAJON ROAD

Next we came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ames. The family built their home and it is certainly a creditable piece of work. They have a grand location and a fine home.

Mr. Ames has put in ten years with the county on road work. They have six children. Mrs. Helen Jensen lives in San Diego. They have one boy. James Earney Ames lives at Sunnyside, Calif. They have three children. Irene Lamadrid lives in El Cajon. They have two children. Willie is part owner of the Cajon Feed Store and lives at home. Anna Marie Ray lives in Lakeside, and Eugene lives at home and is attending Grossmont High.

Across the street from the Ames place I met Mrs. H. D. Cates who lives with her daughter Mrs. A. M. Woodland. This family is renting from Mr. Roberts. Mr. Woodland works at North Island. Week ends he devotes his time instructing flying at Gillespie Field.

Mrs. Cates showed me a small animal that is something of a stranger in this part of the world. She called it a "Golden Hamster". It is about the size of a gopher and is sort of a reddish color. The first ones were imported from Syria. They multiply very rapidly and are valuable for making laboratory tests.

LAKESIDE FARMS

Now we come back to Lakeside Farms to make the acquaintance of some of our new neighbors. I first called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Mack who live on Riverside Drive. They came here from La Jolla in July, 1948, and bought 48 acres from Charles Lucas. They are specializing in raising Hereford cattle. They have one son Richard who is very much interested in livestock. He belongs to the FFA (Future Farmers of America) a product of Grossmont High School. Richard is raising a steer that he hopes to exhibit in future fairs. Besides the cattle they keep two saddle horses. Mr. Mack put down a 65 foot well that supplies an abundance of water for all needs. They use a sprinkling system for irrigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack have an exceptionally well arranged house for convenience and comfort. There are two bedrooms, each with private bath; a large living room and dining room with plate glass windows that afford a grand view of the surrounding country. The scenic view from this house is somewhat of a contrast to most of the other places where I have been. This place, being located on low land, is one looking up at the surrounding hills, and from each side of the house there is a grand view of the valley.

Mr. Mack is a retired real estate broker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wicks and her mother Mrs. E. Drew came from New York a short time ago and bought an acre of ground with buildings on Hillside Drive, from Mr. Thompson. They have a son, married and living in Chula Vista. Mr. Wicks is a retired engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parkinson, now living on Lakeside dr. came from Seattle, Washington, a year ago and bought nearly an acre from Mr. Hicks and built their home. They have four children. Antone is with his sister in Colorado. Susian, now Mrs. Kelsey, lives in Colorado. Jim is in Seattle, Washington, and Gary is in the eighth grade of the Lakeside Grammar School. Mr. Parkinson is retired from the civil aeronautics authority.

About six months ago Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ridenour came from San Diego and bought an acre on Lakeside dr. from Mr. Collard. They have four sons. Edwin is married and lives in Georgia. Another son is married and resides in National City; Henry in Nevada and Victor in Arizona. Mr. Ridenour is a retired railroad man.

About a year ago Mr. and Mrs. E. Gayle Van Sickle came from Kansas and bought 2½ acres on Vsta dr. from Charles Lucas. Mr. Van Sickle is in the poultry business, with 800 laying hens. At times he has as many as 5000 chickens on hand. The couple have three children. Don, 12, is in the eighth grade, Betty Gaile, 11, is in the sixth grade and Keith, 5 in the kindergarten of the Lakeside school. Mr. Van Sickle is a carpenter.

Lakeside Community Presbyterian Church

T. E. ROBERTS, Pastor — Phone H. 4-5036

Lakeside, California August 4, 1949 Vol. 1—No. 3

Nearly half the period for which the summer schedule (Church and Sunday School operating simultaneously from 10 to 11 o'clock) was set up, is now behind us. Attendance nas been consistently good; in fact, overwhelmingly so. The number of people who turned out for the Church family dinner a week ago was so great that the Fellowship Hall was filled to overflowing and extra tables had to be set up. Last Sunday the seating facilities of the Church were taxed to capacity.

Now, in the near future, some decisions will have to be made as to what should be done when the summer ends. There are several possibilities. One would be to continue the early service, concurrent with Sunday School, for the convenience of parents who would like to attend church while their children are in Sunday School, and add a second service at 11 o'clock, a duplicate of the first service, for those who prefer to attend at the later hour.

Another possibility would be to revert back to the regular schedule with Sunday School at 9:45 and church services at 11 o'clock Recommendations on this matter will be made by the church council, but it is desirable to have statements of opinion from the people. The officers of the church and Sunday school would welcome all such expressions.

The recently created Fellowship for older young people (juniors in high school and beyond) appears to be established on solid ground. No effort has been made to work up artificial interest, or false enthusiasm, and yet up to now the attendance has averaged fifteen each Sunday evening. Two new faces last Sunday, Ted Macgillivray and Barbara Kelly, brought the total number of charter members up to 24. Officers elected to lead the group are: Leonard Wessels, president; Sammie Dunham, vice-president, and Dick Kalstrom, secretary-treasurer.

Lindo Park PTA Board To Meet

A meeting of the executive board of the Lindo Park PTA will be held at the school at 10 o'clock Friday, August 12. A workshop period will follow the business meeting.

Chairmen of committees and officers are asked to attend and bring a sack lunch. The meeting will adjourn about 1:30 o'clock.

TO SING AT CONVENTION

A quartet from the Lakeside Kiwanis Club has been asked to sing at the Cal-Vada district convention at Long Beach October 23.

Avocado Damage By Caterpillars

Avocado orchards in many locations of the county are experiencing more than usual amounts of damage to foliage and young fruit by one or more of the common leaf-chewing pests. The amorbia and omnivorous looper are principally involved. Farm Advisor E. C. Moore cautions avocado growers to be on the lookout and to be ready to apply spray to control this pest when infestations are observed, before serious damage develops.

The local district inspectors of the County Agricultural Commissioner's Office should be contacted on questions of identification and spray formulas.

Generally, the treatment used for this condition is an aqueous spray of DDT and wettable sulfur, similar to the formula usually used a little later than this in the summer season for the control of thrips and brown mites in avocados. The formula is comprised of 1 to 2 pounds of wettable 50% DDT powder, and 2 pounds of wettable sulfur to 100 gallons of water. Slight modifications of this formula may be advisable for different locations and conditions.

Nearly a quarter of a million dollars in March of Dimes funds have been plegded to the U. of C. for a five-year program of basic research on poliomyelitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harper have returned to their home on Los Coches rd. after spending considerable time with their daughter in Highland Park, Ill. They report a pleasant trip and an improvement in health for Mrs. Harper.

San Diego Symphony Resumes Concerts

Silent since 1941, when its activities were interrupted by the war, the San Diego Symphony Orchestra has been reactivated and will present five concerts this summer in the beautiful outdoor setting in Balboa Park Bowl (formerly Ford Bowl) at 8:15 p.m., on Tuesday nights, Aug. 9, 16, 23, 30 and September 6.

The San Diego Symphony Orchestra is composed of approximately 65 of San Diego's finest musicians. They will be directed this summer by the internationally-famous Dr. Fabien Sevitzky, distinguished conductor and music director of the Indianapolis Symphony.

General admission seats will be $1, $1.50 and $2, with season tickets at $4.75, $7 and $9.50; all prices including tax. These general admission seats will not be reserved, except that the price of the seat governs the section in which it will be located.

All tickets, with exception of boxes, will be interchangeable and transferable.

Tickets may be obtained at Thearle's or at the box office.

Barbershoppers Plan Old-time Minstrel Show

Last Friday evening's hamburger fry and singfest at the home of Allen Mitchell, new president of the Lakeside chapter, Barbershoppers, was a huge success for all who attended. With "Al" and Mrs. Allen acting as chefs, everyone ate, laughed and sang aplenty. The entire group sing-cerely offer their most chord-ial thanks to the Mitchells for a very harmonious get-together.

Work will begin at this Friday night's regular meeting in preparation for the old fashioned minstrel show, to be presented in Lakeside during the month of November. The exact time and place will be published at a later date.

This chapter will give forth with 40 minutes of entertainment from the grandstand at the Lemon Grove Fiesta, Saturday, Aug. 20, at 7:30 p.m. The show will consist of chorus numbers, quartet numbers and skits.

The annual contest of the Far Western District of SPEBSQSA has been awarded to San Diego, who will act as hosts to many chapters and quartets on October 22. The winners of this district contest will proceed to the regional contest and those winners to the national contest held next summer. All quartets are urged to try out for the coming district bout.

Just Ramblin' Around

Did you notice that it has been a little warmish the past few days? Not that it wasn't perfect Chamber of Commerce weather—heaven on earth, and so forth — but anybody except newspaper people would do their ramblin' at home in the shade.

For example, the editor of this Voice of the Valleys and Mountains took a trip to Oregon to rest up. He scooted back in less than ten days, telling the staff about the green wooded hills, the gently flowing streams and softly falling showers, ending up with a sigh that moved the press two feet. In short, he wanted to get back in the grind and he did. The Linotype recognized its master's hand, and its melting pot promptly blew a fuse. He had to use a blow torch and some strong language to get it going again. He began to wonder why he didn't stay away another week, at least. Then his better ⅞ is starting out for Boulder, Colo., on a two-weeks trip, driving through the desert with her brother and family. Right now the desert temperature hovers around 120 deg. Well, there's still dry ice, we hope.

There is a lad or two in Lakeside that sooner or later will wind up talking to some judge, or if Eddie or Carroll catch up with them, they'll go to the County Hospital, first. We refer to those cute rats who twice set fire to the baled hay at the Lakeside Supply and who used a sledgehammer to demolish the Boy Scout juke box that was used in a 49er booth.

What sort of perverted brain animates an animal of this sort is beyond average understanding. Which again brings up a subject that might help. Seems the Rev. Roberts is getting more and more people to come to the Community Church. If they come once, they repeat, which in turn makes for a good youth movement. The boys and girls who are attending the youth meeting Sunday nights don't have to be coaxed to attend after the first meeting. Add to this what Eddie Marcus is doing at the gym, helping keep the average boy occupied. The culprits responsible for these aforementioned outrages won't have the alibi once heard in Lakeside: "There's nothing for a guy to do around here!" . . The old bromide about never getting something for nothing doesn't quite seem to fit these days. Earl Baranov of Hobbs-Baranov put out a free drawing on a watch and last month on a set of silverware. Now the Lakeside Motors comes up with two free tires, which someone gets for free.

Lots of us are waiting for Bob Watkins to double-deck his stools. We always go into that place with a firm resolution to have only a cuppa coffee; then in comes Bob with an eye-rilling cake and the old will power deserts us. Result, we spend 15c, instead of 5c. . . Some people have the secret of living. Vivian Boyd's dad, George Bowker, takes off for Michigan for three months' vacation. They tell me there are lakes and fish in that state. We wouldn't know what a lake looks like. Bill Root and his Tom Collins specialist take off for Big Bear.

Sink of Sink's Upholstery complaining about the heat. It ain't the heat, Sink. It's those bright patterns you're working with. . . That Thrift Shop run by the PTA is a place you should visit, and if you have any children who have outgrown their clothing, donate it to the shop. You'll be surprised at what a community help that is.

Ever see peaches growing from a willow tree? We have. Elmer Macy brought us in a basket of rose-colored peaches that looked like jewels and tasted even better. Says they are growing on a willow tree graft.

Winter Gardens Emporium is the name of a big Union Oil Station opened in Winter Gardens by Barney Barkus and Ted Sherman. Must drop up there Saturday on opening day.

Foothills Fellowship Organized In El Cajon

A new group, to be known as the Foothills Fellowship, is being organized by members of the Unitarian Church.

A meeting to complete the organization will be held at the home of Helen Schuler Charney in El Cajon, August 11, at 7:30.

The fellowship is open to all liberal Christians in sympathy with the principles of the fellowship, it is stated.

Plans have been made to maintain a reading room and library in the valley.

Further information may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Clara Fry, H. 4-8269.

Sandra Marie Wood Is Birthday Celebrant

Sandra Marie Wood celebrated her fifth birthday, Tuesday, Aug. 2, with a luncheon party under the avocado trees at her home in Winter Gardens.

Eight little guests were present: Karen Jones, Patti Jean Qunci, Greta Spurr, Dudley Spurr, George Jones, Wesley Presnell, Ronnie Presnell and Sandra's brother, Stanley Wood.

The mothers present were the Mmes. Jean Qunci, Muriel Jones, Mrs. Lloyd McCassey; also Sandra's mother, Mrs. Alice Wood, and grandmotner, Mrs. Geo. L. McCassey of La Mesa. Sandra's new little cousin, Heidi, of Winter Gardens, was also a guest.

Sandra had a beautiful circus birthday cake and was the recipient of many gifts. She is already looking forward to the opening of school and starting to kindergarten.

Vacationers Visit Gold Rush Scenes

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Nunnelee have returned to Lakeside following an interesting vacation trip to fishing grounds, via California's historic gold rush towns. They first visited Jamestown and Sonora now decked out with Centennial banners. Then they detoured to Mark Twain's cabin, between Placerville and Sonora. Mrs. Nunnelee records the cabin is located on Jackass Hill, so named by the famous author because of the many burros in the neighborhood. The cabin is a large one-room, with a big fireplace, furnished with two wooden beds, some chairs and, oddly, an old sewing machine."

They drove up the beautiful Yuba river, and fished first in the Sardine lakes, then in Snag lake. Back in camp that night they fried their catch by lanternlight.

Harry O. Gaumer, who recently traded a home on Laurel st. for the Bouchey place on the Barona rd., reported this week that grubbing brush off a sidehill is more work than sitting in the shade.
